QUESTION PAPER CODE 1/1/1

SECTION A (Reading)

20 Marks

1. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow:

8 marks

1. In Belgium newspapers refer to their country as the Kingdom of Chocolates. With hundreds of chocolate factories turning out some 140000 tonnes a year, Belgian chocolate is big business and employs nearly 72000 people. How Belgium became the world's chocolate capital relates partly to its colonial past in Africa, giving it special ties to cacao producers. According to Dirk Arens, Director of Operations, at the big Nuehaus plant, the secret of their success is that the Belgian taste in chocolate seems to be universal and they are fortunate to possess traditional craftsmanship for making fine chocolate.

2. Most Belgian chocolate makers learn their craft at vocational schools before being apprenticed to a master chocolatier. Once on their own, they use the cacao beans, roast them longer, and then grind the particles to a miniscule 20 to 35 microns for a super-velvety texture. And they make it rich: pure cocoa content in Belgian chocolate ranges from 35 to 43% and even higher. It also helps that the Belgian government takes chocolates seriously. In 1975, it decreed that only products made of cacao beans, cocoa butter and sugar could be labelled chocolate. That ruled out the cheaper vegetable used in many countries as a substitute for some of the cocoa butter and spurred Belgian chocolatiers to aim high and pay attention to detail. That simple, elegant, little chocolate box with a little ribbon around it called a ballotin, was invented in 1912 by a meticulous member of the Neuhaus clan to protect packed chocolates.

Complete the following sentences:

1x8=8

2. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow: marks

1. I recently heard a story from a man named Malcolm Dalkoff. He's 48. For the last 24 years he has been a professional writer, mostly in advertising. Here is what he told me. As a boy, Dalkoff was terribly insecure and shy. He had a few friends and no self-confidence. One day in October 1965, his high-school English teacher, Ruth Brauch gave the class an assignment. The students had been reading To kill a Mocking Bird. Now they were to write their own chapter that would follow the last chapter of the novel. Today he cannot recall anything special about the chapter he wrote, or what grade Mrs. Brauch gave him. What he does remember—what he will never forget—are the four words Mrs. Brauch wrote in the margin of the paper. "This is good writing."

2. Four words! They changed his life. "Until I read those words, I had no idea of who I was or what I was going to be," he said. "After reading her note, I went home and wrote a short story, something I had always dreamed of doing but never believed I could do." Over the rest of the year in school, he wrote many stories and always brought them to school for

Mrs. Brauch to evaluate. She was encouraging, rough and honest. "She was just what I needed," Dalkoff said. His confidence grew; his horizons broadened; he started off on a successful, fulfilling life. Dalkoff is convinced that none of this would have happened had that woman not written those four words in the margin of his paper.

3. For his 30th high-school reunion, Dalkoff went back and visited Mrs. Brauch, who had retired. He told her what her four words had done for him. He told her that because she had given him the confidence to be a writer, he had been able to pass that confidence on to the woman who would become his wife, who became a writer herself. He also told Mrs. Brauch that a woman in his office, who was working in the evenings towards a high-school-equivalency diploma, had come to him for advice and assistance. She had respected him because he was a writer - that is why she turned to him. Mrs. Brauch was especially moved by the story of helping the young woman. "At that moment I think we both realized that Mrs. Brauch had cast an incredibly long shadow," he said. "This is good writing." So few words. They can change everything.

2.1 Answer the following in a sentence or two:

- (a) What was the assignment given by Ruth Brauch to her students? 1
(b) When did Dalkoff meet Mrs. Brauch and thank her? 1

(c) Mention the words which Dalkoff will never forget in his life. Where did he see them? 2

2.2 Complete the summary given below. Use only a word to fill in each blank. 1x4=4

The encouragement and support provided by Mrs. Brauch was a turning point in the life of Dalkoff. He found himself writing short stories which were once a (a) _____ to him. Becoming the co-editor of his high-school newspaper (b) _____ his confidence. He was

(c) _____ in passing on the confidence, Mrs. Brauch had given, to others also. He (d) _____ that a few words could change everything.

2.3 Find words which mean the same as the following: 1x4=4

- (a) to assess para 2
(b) completely sure about something para 2
(c) unbelievably para 3
(d) help/support para 3

TOTAL MARKS 8

Format of the report in this question is not important.

Note : Upto 2 marks only may be deducted for expression

No marks should be deducted for incorrect layout

No penalty for exceeding word limit

Question 18 is marked slightly differently from the other literature questions. In this question the student is asked to produce a piece of creative writing based on one of the literature texts .

The main aim of this question is to assess students' understanding and appreciation rather than their writing ability, so the marks for the question are also awarded for content. However, since this is an extended writing task, written expression cannot be ignored, and therefore there is a penalty in question 18 for poor expression.

29

Marking : 8 marks

The marks are to be awarded for content out of 4 as per the writing assessment scale and then multiplied by two to give a total of 8, which is the maximum mark for this question. However, where a student's expression is particularly poor, up to 2 marks may be deducted out of marks obtained as per the writing assessment scale.

Note : C - is marked for content and E - is penalty for expression.
